The fourth annual Apprenticeship Career Connections Fair takes place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the International Centre in Mississauga. It's hosted by the Peel Halton Workforce Development Group.

There will be exhibitors looking for potential hires, and anyone interested in skilled trades or becoming an apprentice, are invited to attend.

Experts say there is a shortage of 50,000 skilled trade workers in the Canada, and that number expected to rise.
